COLLECTIVE 2010: RECYCLE, REUSE, RECREATE

You are invited to participate in PVAC’s annual members’ exhibit Collective2010: Recycle, Reuse, Recreate. This year’s exhibit invites you to explore our theme using and creating with recycled items; “green” media; or items you already have. Consider reusing an old canvas to recreate this year’s masterpiece; scavenge your recycle bin to create an assemblage; or take a trip to one of our recycle centers to collect materials for your entry. If you are re-working a piece that has already been shown at PVAC in the past, we ask that you alter the piece significantly.
