

“Los Pájaros”: Call for Entry

Deadline: July 5, 2010

Exhibit Dates: September 2, 2010 through October 10, 2010

Location: PVAC gallery at 37 Sudden St., Watsonville.

The Pajaro Valley Arts Council is hosting Los Pájaros, an exhibition of bird themed art to celebrate the many birds from which the Pájaro Valley draws its name. It is timed to coincide with the Monterey Bay Birding Festival hosted by the City of Watsonville which draws people from around the U.S., England and Mexico. You are invited to submit bird themed works in all media, including, but not limited to, painting, photography, printmaking, sculpture, assemblage, and science illustration. Entries will be juried by Jane Gregorius and Susan Matulich.

You may submit up to three (3) entries for jurying via e mail to pvacbirds@yahoo.com no later than July 5th. Your e-mail should include your name, address, phone numbers, dimension and medium of each artwork in the e-mail. E-mailed jpgs should be no larger than 2"x3" and 150 dpi. Or you may also send jpegs, no larger than 4x6", 300 dpi, on a CD to PVAC 37 Sudden St., Watsonville, CA 95076. These should be labeled with the artist's name and include the title, dimension and medium of the work. There will be a $25 hanging fee if you are selected to participate. Insurance for the duration of the exhibit is a maximum of $2500 per piece.

The PVAC, was founded as a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization in 1984 in Watsonville, California, to promote and foster cultural events in the Pajaro Valley and south Santa Cruz County. We strive to nourish the artistic resources found in our rich local cultural diversity, historical heritage, and the natural beauty of the Central Coast. We work collaboratively to develop and promote opportunities for public participation in and appreciation for the arts. We are located at 37 Sudden St. (next to the YMCA), Watsonville. Our phone is 831 722-3062.
