Los Pajaros

September 2 to October 10

Youth and adults will be sure to love Los Pajaros, a celebration of the rich texture of bird life abounding in the Pajaro Valley and far afield. This dynamic show includes photography, painting, assemblage, ceramics and more. It is timed to coincide with the Monterey Bay Birding Festival hosted by the City of Watsonville which draws people from around the U.S., England and Mexico.

Dreaming Big: Visions of the Future by Young Artists

October 16 and 17, 11am-5pm

The dreams, hopes, and aspirations of Watsonville's young artists will be the focus of this weekend exhibit. Youth, families, and the community is invited to view this weekend only exhibit, featuring workshops coordinated by Mariposa's Art, providers of award-winning art and leadership programs.

Youth are invited to apply to be in the exhibit by filling out a Participation Permission Slip and dropping off their artwork on Tuesday, October 12 from 3-6pm. This call for artwork on the theme of "Dreaming Big" is open to any youth ages 5-18, who live or go to school in the Pajaro Valley. Please read the Dreaming Big application for more details.

Mi Casa es Tu Casa

October 28 to December 19

Our most popular exhibit is the upcoming, Mi Casa es Tu Casa exhibit, which runs from October 28 to December 19. This annual exhibit will showcase the rich art and tradition of altar-making, as well as celebrate the splendid diversity of our community by encouraging participation from a variety of local groups.

Want to build an altar? Community groups, classes, and families are encouraged to apply. Space is allotted first come first serve by application. Applications are due September 23, 2010. Please read the Mi Casa es Tu Casa application for more details. Want to schedule a group tour? Our schedule fills up quickly. Call now to reserve your tour!
